CBC Monkstown Park | cbcmonkstown.ie

Effective date: 15 September 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how CBC Monkstown Park uses cookies and similar technologies on cbcmonkstown.ie and how visitors can manage their preferences.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They can help websites function, remember preferences, improve security, and understand how visitors use the site.

2. How We Use Cookies

CBC Monkstown Park uses cookies for essential website functionality, to remember cookie-consent preferences and, where enabled, to obtain website usage statistics through analytics services.

The website currently displays a cookie consent interface with options to enable all cookies, reject non-essential cookies, or save selected preferences.

3. Cookie Categories

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are required for core website functionality, security and the operation of the cookie-consent mechanism. They cannot normally be disabled through the website's consent tool because the site may not function correctly without them.

Preference / Functional Cookies

These cookies may remember choices you make, such as cookie-consent or site preferences, so that the website can provide a more consistent experience.

Analytics Cookies

The website currently states that it uses Google Analytics to help understand how visitors use the site, such as which pages are visited and how long visitors spend on the website. Analytics cookies should only be activated where the applicable consent requirements have been satisfied.

Third-Party Cookies

Some pages may contain content or links supplied by third parties. Those third parties may set cookies when their content or services are loaded or used. Their cookie practices are governed by their own policies.

4. Cookies Currently Identified on the Website

Category	Purpose	Provider / Service	Consent
Strictly necessary	Website operation and cookie preferences	CBC Monkstown Park / website tools	Not normally required
Analytics	Understand website usage and improve content	Google Analytics

5. Managing Your Cookie Preferences

When you first visit the website, you may be presented with a cookie consent banner or settings panel. You can use the available options to accept or reject non-essential cookies and save your preferences.

You can also manage or delete cookies through your browser settings. Please note that disabling cookies may affect the functionality, appearance or performance of some websites.

Where the website provides a “Change cookie settings” option, you can use it to revisit your choices.

6. Google Analytics

The website currently identifies Google Analytics as an analytics service used to understand how visitors use the website and to help improve the website and its content. Google Analytics may collect information about pages visited, interactions and technical information about the device or browser.

The exact cookies, configuration, retention periods and processing settings used by Google Analytics can change. CBC Monkstown Park should ensure that the live Google Analytics configuration matches the school’s consent mechanism and data protection requirements.

7. Embedded Content and External Links

The website provides access to external services such as VSware, the school app, social media and other third-party content. When you follow a link or interact with an embedded service, the third party may process information about your visit and may set cookies according to its own policies.

8. Updates to This Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy may be updated when the website’s cookies, plugins, analytics configuration or third-party services change, or where required by law or guidance. The effective date at the top of this page will be updated when material changes are made.
